Catalog Description	72642D Repeter and End line
Long Description	Repeter and End line he Systevo Repeater / switch replaces the previous room bus switch and passive bus termination. The mechanical dimensions are comparable, so the unit can also be used as a replacement in existing installations. The Systevo Repeater enables the room bus and audio bus to be branched and can also be used as an amplifier for them. A repeater unit supports both the room bus and the audio bus, so that one repeater unit is used for both data lines. As the last element in a room/audio bus, end termination on the bus is enabled when jumpers J1 and J2 are plugged in.
