A 3D perspective view of the assembled rail system. It shows two parallel grey metal rails mounted on a white base. A white crossbar is positioned across the top of the rails. Two blue wire hangers are attached to the ends of the crossbar, each holding a black cable. The entire assembly is shown in a perspective view, highlighting its length and the arrangement of its components.

A detailed diagram of a cable tray assembly. A hand is shown using a screwdriver to tighten a screw on a support bracket. The tray is supported by multiple brackets along its length, with red arrows indicating downward force or weight. The diagram illustrates the installation and support structure of the cable tray.
