A brown, irregularly shaped object, possibly a piece of wood or a decorative element, resting on a white surface. The object has several small, dark, rectangular indentations or holes along its perimeter. The white surface is depicted with a black outline that curves around the object, suggesting a shallow dish or a piece of paper.

A simple illustration featuring a white diamond-shaped piece of paper with a black outline, tilted at an angle. Below it is a brown chocolate chip cookie with several dark spots representing chips. The entire scene is set against a light gray background.
